

CHARTER SCHOOL CONTRACT AMMENDMENT

The following items are proposed as amendments to the Charter School Contract between the Early Childhood Family Education Center and the Columbus School District signed by the Board of Education or its designee on January 14, 2008. The following items are proposed by the Charter Governance Council:

1. The name of the charter school shall no longer be Early Childhood Family Education Center and shall be changed to Discovery Charter School.
2. The following sentence, found on page 2 of the current contract, paragraph 1, shall be deleted from the contract: "The ECFEC will begin serving K age students in 2007-08 and will add a grade level each year."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Contract Amendment to be approved and to be executed between the respective governing bodies by their duly authorized representatives.
